

This riveredge property east of Prince Albert is characterized by sloping forested terrain overlain by an extensive building & site development program. Constructed siteworks included entry gateway, roads & parking, a variety of complementary site structures, landscape restoration & an extensive planting program. Particular attention was given to control of roof runoff & stormwater to mitigate potential slope stability & erosion issues

