

This project focussed on the relocation of a previous installation to a new location within the South Saskatchewan River valley. The setting was carefully organized to optimize the riveredge park context. Particular attention was given to integration of memorial features, & to providing comfort for individual & group gathering & peaceful reflection. The planting program emphasizes the informal park setting & highlights the horticultural theme of the particular area of Rotary Park.

