

This significant open space development is dedicated to Sandra Schmirler, Olympic Curling Champion from Biggar. Associated with a major school expansion, this community based initiative is intended to upgrade recreation facilities and leisure amenities. Project highlights include: entry features and donor walls, gazebo, playground and sports field development, pathway network and a comprehensive planting program.

