

In association with Bullee Consulting Ltd., Crosby Hanna & Associates prepared a Community Plan for the Sturgeon Lake First Nation. Through the identification of existing land use and potential development areas within the Sturgeon Lake Reserve, recommended future physical development as well as a five-year capital plan was prepared. The Community Plan provides the basis for preliminary pre-design and design work for future residential, community facility and associated municipal infrastructure development on the Reserve.

